From the Editor

Hi all

Well a successful start for the New Year with the ride out on new years day and nice to see Jim out on his new 1300 on Boxing Day. And of course the news that Julie has passed her test, the third lady from the Rejects to pass in under 2 months,

It won't be long now until those warmer days and trips around this sceptred isle and abroad. I shall be heading to Czech with other VSOCians and Rejects in the summer which should be fun.

In this issue you will find details of renewing your membership, and of the Centres AGM. Please do try and attend.

As ever I look forward to your photographs and tales of events you have attended.

I am not sure what rallies I shall be at this year as it seems to be clashing a lot with family parties etc. Don't forget to pass any ideas for our rally next year to Ian and Chris.

Happy Riding, Ian

Further details of dates to aid in your forward planning can be found on the web site, please send dates of events you may think people would like to rejectnews@ntlworld.com

Dates and times are just numbers put in place by people to keep track of events past and future. They don't really exist except in our minds, we are by far the minority species on this planet, and the species which uses them. So why do I believe, every new year, that I am putting behind one year and starting a new one, and that things will be different or even dare I say it, better? Answers on a postcard please.

Well the start of this "new" year has been traumatic to say the least, as some of you are aware Ruth, (Dragonlady), had to be rushed into hospital for major surgery which has thrown our 2008 plans right out of the window. Although we are advised she will make a full recovery, it will take a long time. So what events we will be able to attend is very much in doubt. But we'll be there in spirit and Dep. Rep. Paul will take up the reins as required. We hope to be back in the fray as soon as practical.

I'd like to thank all of you who have been there for us, if good wishes and prayers could cure, she'd be up and about by now. The response has been overwhelming. Thank you and I wish you all a great years cruising.

(p.s. I know the girl is now in Australia ☺)

2007 What a year that was

Well it's certainly been an interesting year for me this one, with more events squeezed in than I thought possible. From rides in the cold and wet with the heavyweight cruisers, unexpected sunny spring rides, sipping tea in Georgian houses, more rallies than I can shake a stick at great to get back to a VSOC rally as well, and I shall be at one or other next year. My website

(www.bosunsbikes.com) has been doing well and I have had some articles in BSH and American V. we shall leave the mention of our centres dominance of clatter alone ☺)

It's been a mixed year weather-wise but thank fully it hasn't spoilt many of the weekends, I classify a dry ride to a rally and tent up in the dry as a dry rally. That is until December, sadly the very inclement weather at the start of December put a stop to any toy runs but hopefully I shall manage to see the year out on the bike and the new year in.

And already my plan for taking it easy for 2008 (really fancy a trip to USA in 2009 if I can save up) seems to be struggling with the choice of a ride to a Scottish rally or Prague in the offing. The trip to Czech has won, I have just booked two events in January as well.

From Lands End, to Lincoln, from Bolougne to Bedford, Croydon to Cherbourg and many places in-between as well. It has been a year for many happy smiles. Could I point out any events or moments as extra special, well maybe if push came to shove I might say: the ride home from Creatures rally at 05.30 on a crystal clear Sunday morning, chilling at Fen Frolics, the Thursday night at the Celtic Brotherhood rally with its totally impromptu music session or even visiting the tin mine in Cornwall. So here are a few shots that are my favourites from 2007 some VSOC events and a few independent ones.

Whether you are a gentle ride out person or a 300 mile a day tourer here's looking forward to another great riding year in 2008

Happy riding Bosun

DEP REPS THOUGHTS

Well here we are last summer is sinking into the past, sinking being the right word for the summer we have just gone through, in forty years of riding and rallies I cannot remember a worse one but what the hell, it only seemed to be the northern rallies that were wet, wet.. Our own road trip at Easter to Glastonbury was dry and a good trip as I'm sure those who came will agree and the last rally at Camborne was excellent and probably the best of the year, definitely the best band "the Morris Brothers". Ten of us took advantage of the good weather and stayed on for the week following the rally at Lands End and had an excellent time, out and about pubbing, eating far to much food and being amazed at the width of chimps grin as she rode every where on her reliable 125 virago, even the 'orrible twisty roads didn't faze her, the AJ and Ruth biker catering company was greatly appreciated by all who dined there. Well that was last year, there is a full program for this year, just look at the events calendar to keep up to speed, this years Easter road trip will be 21st to the 24th of march, as this is early this year, we (that's the old fogeys) have decided to go for b&b or caravans for this trip as its warm and dry, the two options that have been mooted for this are Norfolk as the centre has been as far north as possible in the UK, as far west as possible, so why not as far east as possible, then we can say we have done the four corners of the UK as a centre or how about a trip to the bikers loft at Oostende, just a quick nip across on the ferry, this is a great place as food, bar and music are all on site and the company is fellow bikers and cheap accommodation , so give me some feed back as to what you want and we will see what can be booked but as is only 8 weeks away and it is Easter we will have to book quick. When we have some numbers I will contact you all with some costs for this trip. And just on a finishing point make the most of this year as next year is our rally so you will be too knackered to do too much in 09. Ho Ho Ho

French Trip
12th April

Fancy a day trip to France on Saturday 12th April, a nice ride through the countryside for Lunch and some shopping?

Here's the plan:

You need to book your own Euro tunnel ticket for the 09.20 crossing, with a return at 18.50. The tunnel is the easiest and quickest way to cross.

This means booking in at 09.00 so my plan is to leave Clackets services on the M25 (eastbound) at 07.15 leaving time at the terminal for a coffee and comfort break.

Once in France the plan (Subject to change with the weather etc) is to head for St Omer, about 30 miles for a spot of shopping and lunch in one of the many bars with plenty of time for a relaxed trip to return.

You will need to book your own ticket
If you want to book online the link is:

<http://www.eurotunnel.com>

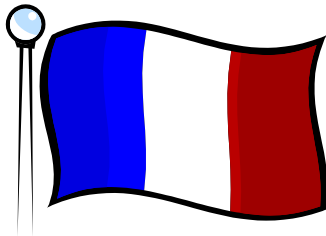

The cost of the ticket is £32 per bike.

Please drop me a line if you would like to go

January 1st 2008

With it being the international year of the potato we started 2008 in traditional style, meeting 11.00 ish (well Anne was leading) at Boxhill.

The weather was a bit damp and unpleasant, but it was great to see friends from Thames Valley make it as well.

We then headed to the Seahorse at Shalford where those dry people went in for food, those who forgot waterproof trousers (me) headed home a good start to the year.

Two fleas had an arrangement to meet every winter in Miami for a vacation. Last year when one flea gets to Miami, he's shivering and shaking. The other flea asks him, "Why are you shaking so badly?" The first flea says, "I rode down here from New Jersey in the moustache of a guy on a Harley." The other flea responds saying, "That's the worst way to travel. Try what I do. Go to the New Jersey airport bar. Have a few drinks. While you are there, look for a nice stewardess. Crawl up her leg and nestle in where it's warm and cosy. It's the best way to travel that I can think of." The first flea thanks the second flea and says he will give it a try next winter. A year goes by. When the first flea shows up in Miami he is shivering and shaking again. The second flea says, "Didn't you try what I told you?" "Yes," says the first flea, "I did exactly as you said. I went to the New Jersey airport bar. I had a few drinks Finally, this nice young stewardess came in. I crawled right up to her warm cosy spot. It was so nice and warm that I fell asleep. When I woke up, I was back in the moustache of a guy on a Harley."

I decided to change jobs, so off I went to the local hospital for an interview with the pregnancy clinic.....they gave me a written q & a test... so , how do you think I did?

Q: Should I have a baby after 35?

A: No, 35 children is enough.

Q: I'm two months pregnant now. When will my baby move?

A: With any luck, right after he finishes university.

Q: What is the most reliable method to determine a baby's sex?

A: Childbirth.

Q: My wife is five months pregnant and so moody that sometimes she's borderline irrational.

A: So what's your question?

Q: My childbirth instructor says it's not pain I'll feel during labour, but pressure. Is she right?

A: Yes, in the same way that a tornado might be called an air current.

Q: When is the best time to get an epidural?

A: Right after you find out you're pregnant.

Q: Is there any reason I have to be in the delivery room while my wife is in labour?

A: Not unless the word 'divorce' means anything to you.

Q: Is there anything I should avoid while recovering from childbirth?

A: Yes, pregnancy.

Q: Do I have to have a baby shower?

A: Not if you change the baby's nappy very quickly.

Q: Our baby was born last week. When will my wife begin to feel and act normal again?

A: When the kids are in university.

they said they will be in touch..... ☺

VMCC Boxing day meet Pied Bull Farningham

Boxing Day December 26th, St Stephens Day, whatever you call it a traditional day for feeling bloated after the festivities of the day before, and for some a day for queues and crushes as they head for sales to spend more money, my poor piggy bank cannot cope with anymore expenditure and winces each time I give it a perfunctory rattle. For those motorcycle enthusiasts who do not hibernate for the winter it is also becoming a traditional day for meets, and here I had a choice, Ace Café, Box hill or the Racing at Mallory Park, but friends had told me of a meet in Kent which was perfect for my current state of funds and would allow for a pleasant 80 mile round trip now the sun was out.

The origins of the modern Boxing Day go back to the mid 1800 when the Victorians allowed their tradesmen and other suppliers to collect tips or gifts for services during the year. Maybe I could swell my coffers this way. Blagging a few coins off my Auntie I purchased some fuel for my rusty steed squeezed into the bike attire (I'm sure it fitted a few days ago) and headed off to Kent.

The origins of the modern Boxing Day go back to the mid 1800 when

With a fair wind behind (curse all those sprouts yesterday) I soon found myself in the picturesque village of Farningham and followed the stream of classic bikes to the high street.

Finding a space to squeeze into it to park, I was then hailed down by Rosie and Jim who had just arrived as well. Time was then spent wandering through the myriad styles of bikes and trikes, for although it is a classic meet it draws people from all over the South East. With the road still damp from the wet day previous many bikes had small rainbow pools under them as they slowly marked there territories giving it a festive feel. It also seemed the place to meet friends you haven't seen for a while, and over coffee we whiled the time away. There were not too many Viragos or stars Present but a couple of Virago Trikes and a smuggler was seen riding through. And Jim arrived on his new 1300 as I was about to leave.

Eventually I reached the Pied Bull Public house where the main meet for VMCC is held, and to say it was snug in the car park would be an understatement, you could hardly slide a Christmas card between them. The atmosphere was Jovial and there were smiles everywhere, there seems to be a slight different camaraderie with riders in the winter months. There was a great selection of bikes, from Indian and Harleys with sidecars, to hardworking AJS trials bikes and the prettiest Norton Racer it was superb and enough beautiful triumphs to keep me happy. Personal favourites of the day would be the Norton Racer, a Triumph Mettise and a well used and abused BSA. The modern Suzuki in garish blue with metallic stickers on it would be my award for over blinged bike of the day

As the morning sun waned so I headed back home for more cold turkey and stuffing, a great morning out

The Pied Bull is home to several motorcycle clubs including the local branch of the VMCC more details can be found here:

YOU CANT FIX STUPID

Eighth Place

In Detroit , a 41-year-old man got stuck and drowned in two feet of water after squeezing head first through an 18-inch-wide sewer grate to retrieve his car keys.

Seventh Place

A 49 year old San Francisco stockbroker, who 'totally zoned when he ran,' accidentally jogged off a 100-foot high cliff on his daily run.

Sixth Place

Buxton , NC : A man died on a beach when an 8-foot-deep hole he had dug into the sand caved in as he sat inside it. Beach-goers said Daniel Jones, 21, dug the hole for fun, or protection from the wind, and had been sitting in a beach chair at the bottom Thursday afternoon when it collapsed, burying him beneath 5 feet of sand. People on the beach, on the outer banks, used their hands and shovels, trying to claw their way to Jones, a resident of Woodbridge , VA , but could not reach him. It took rescue workers using heavy equipment almost an hour to free him while about 200 people looked on. Jones was pronounced dead at a hospital.

Fifth Place

Santiago Alvarado, 24, was killed in Lompoc as he fell face-first through the ceiling of a bicycle shop he was burglarizing. Death was caused when the long flashlight he had placed in his mouth (to keep his hands free) rammed into the base of his skull as he hit the floor.

Fourth Place

Sylvester Briddell, Jr., 26, was killed in Selbyville , Del , as he won a bet with friends who said he would not put a revolver loaded with four bullets into his mouth and pull the trigger.

As Ron White often says : ' You can't fix stupid.' These people prove it is a terminal condition. As always, competition this year has been keen.

Third Place

The following mind-boggling attempt at a crime spree in Washington, DC appeared to be the robber's first (and last), due to his lack of a previous record of violence, and his terminally stupid choices:

1. His target was H&J Leather & Firearms; A shop specializing in handguns.
2. The shop was full of customers - firearms customers.
3. To enter the shop, the robber had to step around a marked police patrol car parked at the front door.
4. A uniformed officer was standing at the counter, having coffee before work. Upon seeing the officer, the would-be robber announced a hold-up, and fired a few wild shots from a target pistol. The officer and a clerk promptly returned fire, the police officer with a 9mm GLOCK 17, the clerk with a 50 DESERT EAGLE, assisted by several customers who also drew their guns, several of whom also drew and fired.

The robber was pronounced dead at the scene by Paramedics. Crime scene investigators located 47 expended cartridge cases in the shop. The subsequent autopsy revealed 23 gunshot wounds. Ballistics identified rounds from 7 different weapons. No one else was hurt in the exchange of fire.

HONORABLE MENTION

Paul Stiller, 47, was hospitalized in Andover township, NJ, and his wife Bonnie was also injured, when a quarter- stick of dynamite blew up in their car. While driving around at 2 AM, the bored couple lit the dynamite and tried to toss it out the window to see what would happen, but apparently failed to notice the window was closed.

RUNNER UP:

TACOMA , WA . Kerry Bingham had been drinking with several friends when one of them said they knew a person who had bungee-jumped from the Tacoma Narrows Bridge in the middle of traffic. The conversation grew more heated and at least 10 men trooped along the walkway of the bridge at 4:30 AM. Upon arrival at the midpoint of the bridge they discovered that no one had brought a bungee rope.

Bingham, who had continued drinking, volunteered and pointed out that a coil of lineman's cable lay near by. One end of the cable was secured around Bingham's leg and the other end was tied to the bridge. His fall lasted 40 feet before the cable tightened and tore his foot off at the ankle. He miraculously survived his fall into the icy salt water and was rescued by two nearby fishermen. 'All I can say' said Bingham, is that God was watching out for me on that night. There's just no other explanation for it.' Bingham's foot was never located.

AND THE WINNER:

Overzealous zookeeper Friedrich Riesfeldt (Paderborn , Germany) fed his constipated elephant Stefan 22 doses of animal laxative and more than a bushel of berries, figs and prunes before the plugged- up pachyderm finally let it fly, and suffocated the keeper under 200 pounds of poop!

Investigators say ill-fated Friedrich, 46, was attempting to give the ailing elephant an olive oil enema when the relieved beast unloaded on him. 'The sheer force of the elephant's unexpected defecation knocked Mr. Riesfeldt to the ground where he struck his head on a rock and lay unconscious as the elephant continued to evacuate his bowels on top of him' said flabbergasted Paderborn police detective Erik Dern. With no one there to help him, he lay under all that dung for! at least an hour before a watchman came along, and during that time he suffocated. It seems to be just one of those freak accidents that proves... 'Shit happens.'
